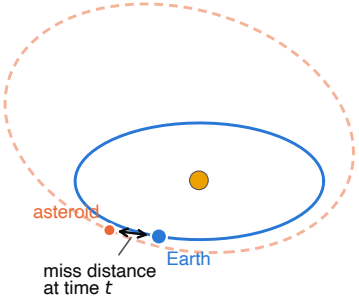
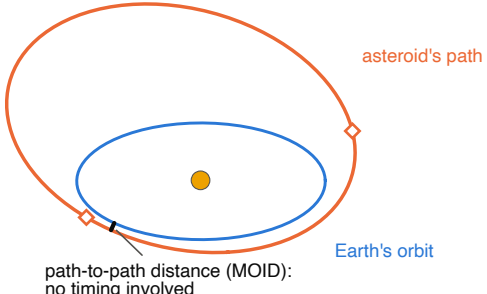
(a) Earth's view: one row per close approach



Features change with every encounter (timing, speed, distance); the same asteroid appears many times.

(b) Asteroid's view: one row per asteroid



Each asteroid is one row: its own path and size.
Diamonds: nodes, where the path crosses Earth's orbital plane.